NEW and IMPROVED!

Contextual Material will enhance website

The Canadian Nursing History Collection Online website is a searchable database dedicated to the nursing collections at the Canadian Museum of Civilization and the Canadian War Museum. As an active site, it includes not only objects currently in the collections, but any subsequently acquired. While emphasis is on three-dimensional objects, associated photographs and documents often exist, and in a final phase of the website project this important contextual material has been digitized and attached to the site.

These materials include photographs, often of nurses wearing the uniforms in the collections; individual nurse's scrapbooks of clippings, photographs and memorabilia; documents such as handwritten school notes; posters; sheet music; diplomas; and letters. Attached is a list of searchable terms to help to find these new items on the website.

Digitization of Canadian War Museum Collections

A final project to digitize collections, especially military nursing uniforms, at the Canadian War Museum has been completed. This will greatly enhance the visual understanding of the collections.

Acknowledgements

These projects were sponsored by financial donations, principally from the Canadian Nurses Association, but also from individual and organizational donors, to whom the Canadian Museum of Civilization and the Canadian War Museum would like to express their sincere appreciation.

Thanks also to project manager Krista Cooke, documentalists Emily Bracewell and Emilia Alai, and systems administrator Robert Patterson at the Canadian Museum of Civilization. At the Canadian War Museum, thanks to dress and insignia collection manager Eric Fernberg, artifact mover Don Dingwall and photographer Bill Kent.
